CHICAGO, SATURDAY, JUNE 18, 1898.

PRICE, 5 CENT

THE AMERICAN DERBY.

There is really a cheerful and exhilarating prospect that, despite the certainty of Plaudit being a starter, the American Derby will be fought out by a field superior in numbers to any that has contested a 3-year-old stake race this year. There is one good reason for this pleasing apparent probability in the liberal apportionment of $2,000 to second and $1,000 to third horse, these sums being in excess of the value of many of the stake events of the other western turf organizations and well worth contending for in this period of slim stakes and slimmer purses.

Plaudit is a sure starter, unless some unforeseen accident disables him between now and next Saturday. With the Kentucky Derby, Clark Stakes, Oakley Derby and Buckeye Stakes already placed to his credit he fully deserves the position of favorite that will no doubt be his when the horses go to the post next Saturday. His victories have also earned the extreme penalty for him, so he will carry 129 pounds. Plaudit is a grand colt. It is doubtful if a better ever started in an American Derby.

Mirthful will be here in a day or two for the express purpose of trying for Derby honors. In days gone other good colts from the east have essayed the capture of the foremost prize of the western turf but none succeeded. Senator Grady ran second in 1894 as did St. Leonards in 1893. Mirthful is speedy, game, staying and up to weight. If it should be his fortune to succeed where Don Alonzo, Senator Grady, Chorister, Ramapo, St. Leonards and Domino failed no one here will begrudge his liberal owners such a great reward for their enterprise. In fact it would be a fortunate occurrence since it could hardly fail to incite other eastern owners to try for the American Derbys of future years.

Warrenton, another eastern candidate, is here now in active and encouraging training for the big event. He is worth consideration. He has been beaten by both Sly Fox and Mirthful this year, but in his turn he has also beaten both of them. Sly Fox, be it noted, is apparently about the best 3-year-old in the east, leaving Hamburg out of consideration.

Bannockburn is declared by his owner to be a sure starter. This big colt was certainly a good 2-year-old, but sickness has so far prevented him from revealing what may be his real qualities as a 3-year-old. He runs in the St. Louis Derby today, but what he may do there can hardly be conclusive as to his chances here a week later. If he wins it will be held to be largely due to his light impost, while if he is beaten, it may be due to a lack of the very preparation the race may give him.

But for Plaudit, Lieber Karl would be the conceded best 3-year-old in the west. Since his defeat for the Oakley Derby this good colt has been awarded a rest that he probably needed badly, and which may so freshen and benefit him as to bring him back to his best Memphis form. If such proves to be the case, there is no doubt that he can be depended upon to run a truly great race. It is not doubted that he will go to the post. His triumph in the Memphis Derby served to raise his weight to 125 pounds.

Taking this quintette as sure starters at least ten should go to the post, with Borgia, Traverser, Pingree, Eddie Jones, Sardonic, Fonsavannah, Count of Flanders, Pink Coat, John Bright, Bangle, Alleviate and Frank Thompson the eligibles that should furnish the other five, or even more. Owners owe it to the Washington Park Club to make the Derby field a strong one numerically, even in cases where they do not think their horses have any but the most remote chances of capturing a part of the money. The return of the club to racing is bound to prove enormously beneficial to western owners and, even from the merely selfish standpoint of their own pecuniary interests, it is their obvious duty to make the revival of the American Derby brilliantly successful from every point of view. This is a point that cannot be too seriously considered by owners who are in doubt about starting their horses.

TURF CONGRESS APPEALS.

CINCINNATI, O., June 16.—The Committee of Appeals of the Turf Congress met here yesterday and transacted considerable business. Messrs. Rolla Wells, and E. F. Clay were present, Judge George Perkins being the absent member. The most important case decided was that of R. R. Rice & Co. against the New Memphis Jockey Club, to recover possession of the three-year-old filly, Lady Irene, now in possession of Stanton & Tucker. While racing at Memphis in April last one of the members of the firm of Rice & Co. claimed Lady Irene out of a selling race from Stanton & Tucker. The latter demurred to the claim, alleging that it was illegal, as the claimant was not a member of the firm of Rice & Co. Judge Clark decided in favor of Stanton & Tucker, basing his decision on the statement that all the members of the firm of Rice & Co., had not been duly registered with the Secretary of the New Memphis Jockey Club prior to the running of their horses at the meeting. Rice & Co. carried the case to the Committee on Appeals, and the following decision was rendered by its members: "In the case of R. R. Rice & Co. vs. the New Memphis Jockey Club it is the opinion and judgment of the Committee on Appeals that R. R. Rice & Co. complied with Rule 78 when they registered with the Secretary of the New Memphis Jockey Club, prior to making entries to the meeting of said club, the names of said R. R. Rice & Co. Under the rules of the American Turf Congress, they had the right to claim Lady Irene and retain possession of her."

Lady Irene is now being raced at the Highland Park meeting in Detroit, and the decision of the Committee on Appeals makes her liable to claim by Rice & Co. at any time.

A decision was rendered by the Appeals Committee in the next case taken up that declared two rules of the New Memphis Jockey Club illegal and contrary to the laws of the Turf Congress. At the spring meeting last April of the New Memphis Jockey Club "Umbrella" McGuigan entered Boanerges in a handicap to which an entrance fee of $15 was charged. There being but three other starters the New Memphis Club declared the race off and retained the entrance fees under two rules of the association, which are as follows:

Rule 15. In purses, handicaps and sweepstakes that close during the meeting, five horses of different interest to enter and start or the race may be declared off.

Rule 33. In purse races below eight, a declaration fee of 5 per cent of first money shall be charged which shall be divided between the second and third horses in the ratio of 60 and 40 per cent, respectively. But in case of the declarations being below five, the race may be declared off at the discretion of the management and the declaration fee shall remain in the custody of the club and go to the racing fund.

Under these rules when McGuigan scratched Boanerges and the race was declared off his $15 declaration fee was retained by the club. McGuigan demanded the return of his money, but it was refused. He carried the case before the Appeals Committee and yesterday they decided that he is entitled to the return of his $15. The above rules of the New Memphis Jockey Club were declared as illegal and contrary to those of the Turf Congress. This will compel the New Memphis Club to strike them from its list of racing rules and make it liable to return all money collected under them.

The petition of Jockey Chevalier, of Little Pete fame, for reinstatement was again before the committee, but was not considered. The petition of Jockey Hall, who was ruled off at Nashville, was rejected. William McGuigan lodged complaint against John Schorr for abusing him at Memphis last April, in front of the judges' stand, after he had run up Sea Lion in a selling race. The Appeals Committee decided that it had no jurisdiction in the case, and said it should have been brought to the attention of the presiding judge of the track—Lewis M. Clark.

TO-DAY'S SUBURBAN.

The field named to contest the Suburban Handicap today is fully up to the standard of former years, and a grand contest will no doubt be witnessed by the big crowd that will travel out to the fine track by the ocean side. With Ornament, Imp, Semper Ego, On Deck, Typhoon II. and George Keene among the probable starters the western horses seem likely to make a strong bid for the big event, and there will be a lot of disappointment out in this section if one of them does not carry it off.

In the ante-post betting in New York yesterday Ornament was a strong favorite, a position fully warranted by his very easy victory in the Brooklyn Handicap. Since that race he has trained on in the best of health and condition and will no doubt be fit to run the race of his whole career this afternoon. In fact, it may be said there is not a horse named to start about which training reports are not of the most satisfactory character.

The fact that Imp is in the race insures that it will be run at a high rate of speed. If she goes to the front as she usually does in her races it is safe to suggest that some of her opponents will be pretty well out of breath at the end of the first mile if they try to keep close up to her. A mile in better than 1:40 is within her compass easily and what effect that might have on the heavyweights is an interesting problem. The interest attaching to this race is always very great but it promises to be stronger than usual this afternoon. The starters and jockeys are as follows:

8-5 Ornament.....	131 Sloan
4-1 Ben Holladay.....	123 Doggett
On Deck.....	120 Taral
6-1 *Typhoon II.....	114
Semper Ego.....	106 P Clay
8-1 Tillo.....	117 A Clayton
10-1 Havoc.....	110 S. Williams
Tragedian.....	114 Sullivan
8-1 Royal Stag.....	114 Lewis
10-1 Ogden.....	109 Hamilton
15-1 Peep o'Day.....	110 Spencer
15-1 George Keene.....	99 Sloan
4-1 Imp.....	102 Clawson
15-1 Buella.....	104 O'Leary
15-1 Don d'Oro.....	115 Simms

*Doubtful starter.

†Formerly Lou Bramble

If Fleischmann's Sons send George Keene to the post Sloan will be obliged to ride him, and the owners of Ornament will be forced to secure some other jockey. It is a complication that will doubtless be settled satisfactorily in good time. The odds quoted were those offered in New York and this city yesterday.

NEW YORK, June 17.—The betting here tonight runs this way:

Two to 1 Ornament; 5 to 1 Imp; 3½ to 1 Ben Holladay; 12 to 1 Peep O'Day. Others 10 to 15 and 20 to 1.

The best information tonight says that Typhoon II. will go, and that Taral will ride him.

BATTEN'S GOOD HARLEM RACE.

Friday's Harlem track was slow. The footing for about fifteen feet out from the inner rail was covered with a dry crust, but horses striding in it left foot prints from two to four inches deep. Jockeys avoided it so far as possible and trainers generally instructed them to do so. As a consequence the racing was all done some distance out from the inside. On the outside the going was dry and firm. The track should be in good order today.

There were fourteen starters in the first race. Hothersall was made the favorite with Sir Hobart and Treeby second and third choices. Tully Coulter won $16 from his stable men and boys, laying long odds against Hothersall, and would like to have somebody explain why the horse was held at a short price by the ring. Miss Wise rated along to the head of the stretch and then drew away from the field. She promised to be an easy winner, but tired at the end.

The right horses were made first and second choices in the second race. Roger B., backed to odds on, was never extended, and Fresco easily secured the place. The field finished in Indian file, strung out a hundred yards.

Pearl Walker had little trouble in winning the third race. Getting away well, she was always at the front. She and Good Friend, the favorite, made the turn almost abreast. Straightening for home Good Friend was in difficulties. Nannie Davis finished with surprising strength and easily beat the favorite for the place.

An allowance purse for 2-year-olds enabled Batten to get in a soft spot in the fourth race. Rosa L. drew up to him in the stretch. When Hill eased Batten a little he went away from her and romped home. The Dragoon showed himself to be much the best of the others.

The fifth event was at a mile. Ollie Dixon, the favorite, lay far back the first five furlongs. Pinar del Rio did little better. Nearing the three-quarters the pair moved up. In the stretch they had the race to themselves, the favorite winning with little effort.

The Tarcoon finished first in the closing race and was disqualified. He came from behind in the stretch and bumped into the leader, King Bermuda. After straightening out King Bermuda assumed a clear lead of an open length. At the three-sixteenths the Tarcoon was lapped on the leader. When hit with the whip the Tarcoon swerved to the left and bumped against Bermuda. When Turner quit using his whip the Tarcoon forged ahead and was clearly the better horse. The judges called the boys into the stand. Turner admitted the bumping, but said he could not have helped it, the horse did it getting away from the whip. Had Turner not used his whip he would have won. After dressing, Turner and Caywood met. The latter said: "That was tough to lose that way. You could beat that horse anyway, but you hit him pretty hard. If I could only have made my horse run straight he would have beaten both of you. He swerved all over the track." "Turner replied: 'The bump made no difference in the result, excepting to get me disqualified. When touched with the whip my horse make a rank swerve and I couldn't hold him out. I was just getting up to him when it happened. I didn't cross him or stop him although I hit him pretty hard. When we got straightened my horse passed him and went away from him.'"

Fred Foster will arrive this morning from St. Louis with seven horses. He has notified Secretary Nathanson that Eva Rice will be a sure starter in the Senior Stakes.

BATTEN'S GOOD HARLEM RACE.

Dave Waldo did satisfactory cantering work yesterday morning. He may be seen at the post next week. Trainer Glascock is not disposed to hurry him and may not start him before the Washington Park meeting.

Pearl Barnes was shipped to St. Louis yesterday.

In the Senior Stakes at Harlem today J. Hill will be astride of Pingree, H. Martin will be on Midian, and Caywood will pilot Warrenton.

Black Venus has about recovered from the kick given her by King Barleycorn. She worked a half yesterday morning in :54 and cooled out without showing any lameness.

Willie Martin will ride Pink Coat in the St. Louis Derby today. The colt is in at 107 pounds. Pat Dunne has gone to St. Louis with him. Because of his contract with Mr. Dunne, Martin had to decline a mount on Plaudit. Charlie Thorpe, Willie Martin and J. Morgan left last night for St. Louis. Morgan goes to ride Jackanapes in the Derby. He returns Sunday morning and leaves Sunday night for Montana to ride for Mr. Marcus Daly.

Prince Poniatowski, of San Francisco, was at Harlem yesterday. He has a farm at Burlingame, and Magnet is at the head of the stud. The prince has five 2-year-olds, by St. Carlo, which he expects to race in the east this year. Two of them, St. Kristine and Tenebrae, are at Harlem in charge of James Coffey, who trains Dr. Rowell's string.

Winner—B. f. 3, by Luke Blackburn—Sun Maid.

Post 3 minutes. Start good. The first four were driving hard. Miss Wise was lucky. She got away flying and always had clear sailing. Bethlehem Star and Treby were both better than she. Off in the first division the former could not have lost. He got to Miss Wise about twenty yards out but the early effort told on him and he weakened at the end. Treby was under the whip all the way. Henry Chance and Hotherhall had no excuses. Neither seems to be of much account. It was a bad lot.

Scratched—Valadore, 117.

Winner—Ch. g. 5, by Sobranje—Pleased.

Off at first break to a good start. Won easily; second mildly driven; third and fourth driving hard. Roger B was much the best. All Bloss had to do was to hold his head up. Fresco was interfered with on the first turn, but not enough to cause any difference in the result. Pitfall ran an honest race. Entering the back stretch he was under a hard drive. Vince Regal and Cynthia both met with interference in the back stretch. Bow and Arrow ran a bad race. Will Elliott pulled up lame.

Winner—B. f. by Free Knight—Zella.

Off at first break to a good start. Won cleverly; second with something left after an early drive; third eased at the end. Pearl Walker got a running start and ran a real good race. This performance shows that the filly should have won her last out. Rutter rode her nicely today. He took her in hand on the turn evidently to test Good Friend. The latter ran a disappointing race. She evidently likes weight off. Martin, through carelessness, almost lost third place with her. Nannie Davis ran to her notch. Tab Hazeldean. Her race was a good one. She bleeds. Julia Hazel was in a pocket early and obliged to pull up and go around. This was not her race. Overweights—Come Quick, 2 pounds; Fleeda, 2 1/2.

6492 FOURTH RACE—4 1-2 Furlongs. Purse $400. 2-year-olds. Allowances.

Winner—B. c. by Candlemas or Hayden Edwards—Sudie McNairy.

Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second cleverly. The next three were driving hard. Batten held his field safe all the way, although Rosa L made a strong bid on the turn. He could have won off by himself had Hill chose. Rosa L ran a much improved race. She is either an in and out or unlucky. The Dragon was obliged to take the long route. He finished stoutly under a hard drive. Ned Wickes had bad luck. He was shut off on the far turn. Mazie V had speed but gave it up when the pinch came. Mulvihill was never a contender.

Scratched—Pirate Judge, 110.

Winner—B. f. 3, by Sir Dixon—Ollie Glenn.

Post 17 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second, third and fourth driving hard. Ollie Dixon was under pressure at the turn, but shook Pinar del Rio off about the sixteenth pole and had something left at the finish. At the half mile ground the filly seemed hopelessly beaten, but was lucky in getting through. Pinar del Rio ran a good race under a bad ride. The boy was rolling all over her in the stretch. Better handled she would have made the winner extend herself. Necedah, as usual, acted badly at the post. She ran a fair race. Inconstancy was killed off racing with Newsgatherer. The latter stopped badly in the stretch. He dislikes weight. The post delay hurt his chances. Pinky Potter showed some speed.

Overweights—Inconstancy, 3 pounds.

6494 SIXTH RACE—3-4 Mile. Purse $400. 3-year-olds and upward. Maidens. Allowances.

Winner—Br. g. 3, by Bermuda—Queen Isabella.

Off at first break to a good start. The Tarcoon had something left at the end. He is a bad horse and caused a lot of trouble in the race. When straightened away Turner hit him with the whip and he crossed to the inside. Before Turner could get control of him, he collided with King Bermuda. Moroni swerved all over the track above the eighth pole. Weird is a coward and stopped badly at the end.
